

Job Seeker Alert: Fraudulent Activity

We want to make you aware of an increase in fraudulent activity targeting job seekers. In some cases, scammers are falsely presenting themselves as Itron employees or recruiters in an attempt to collect personal information or money.

PLEASE NOTE ITRON:

- » Will never request sensitive personal information (such as bank account or social security numbers) via text, instant message, or unsecured channels.
- » Will not send interview invitations or job offers without a formal application submitted through our Careers site
- » Does not partner with agencies that require candidates to pay fees at any stage of the hiring process.

To protect yourself, we encourage you to search and apply for verified opportunities through our official Careers site: <https://na.itron.com/careers>

For additional information, please review the U.S. Federal Trade Commission's guidance on avoiding job scams: <https://consumer.ftc.gov/>

Your safety and trust are important to us.
